NEWS RELEASE
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
January 31, 2017

Contact:
Rebecca Fairman, Development Director
American Foundation of Counseling Services
920-437-8256 Ext. 113
rfairman@afcscounseling.org

American Foundation of Counseling Services Seeking Nominations for the 10th Annual Ethics in Business Awards

GREEN BAY, WI – American Foundation of Counseling Services (AFCS), along with founding sponsor Green Bay Packaging Inc. and the George F. Kress Foundation, is now accepting nominations for the 10th annual Ethics in Business Awards. Awards will be presented at a luncheon on Thursday, November 9, 2017 at the KI Convention Center.

Members of the Brown County area are encouraged to nominate businesses, non-profits and individuals for the awards or take advantage of the unique opportunity to self nominate. Nominations are being accepted through March 10, 2017 and can be submitted online at AFCS's website: http://www.AFCScounseling.org/ethicsnominations.php.

AFCS founded and hosts the Ethics in Business Awards to foster a climate of ethical integrity in northeast Wisconsin, to heighten awareness of AFCS within the business community, and to raise funds for AFCS.

The awards honor businesses, non-profit organizations, and individuals who have demonstrated both business excellence and the highest standards including values such as civic and social responsibility, integrity, and ethical conduct. Companies and organizations of all sizes throughout Northeast Wisconsin (Brown County and adjacent counties), with a significant commitment to doing business in Brown County, are eligible for consideration.

Last year's award finalists included:
Individual Category - Denis Hogan (award recipient); Allan Jamir; Toni Loch; and Kathy Pletcher.
Business Category – The Foth Companies (award recipient); Denmark State Bank; Hillcrest Homes; and Koehler Flooring, Inc.
Non-Profit Category – NEW Community Shelter (award recipient); Aging & Disability Resource Center; Bellin Health; and Cerebral Palsy, Inc.

About AFCS
American Foundation of Counseling Services (AFCS) was established in 1965 by George Kress and Norman Vincent Peale with the original goal of providing training and counseling education to clergy and congregations in northeast Wisconsin. Today, AFCS provides outpatient counseling to individuals and families and provides payment alternatives to make counseling affordable for those who are uninsured and under-insured. The organization is also a state-licensed child placing agency, providing intensive out of home placement for children that have been a victim of abuse or neglect or who have delinquency issues. Additionally, AFCS provides a variety of leadership services through its Clergy and Congregational Care program. AFCS is affiliated with The Samaritan Institute of Denver, Colorado. To learn more about AFCS, visit www.AFCScounseling.org or contact President and CEO Ryan Good at (920) 437-8256.

###